Author's Bio

I'm a poet, writer, and author with a difference: I write for every one of all ages who believe the world needs words with passion so people can pursue their craft and feel good about what they do. For me, success comes when my readers are as delighted with my work as I am. Praise like this affirms that I'm heading in the right direction:

I was the kid who grew up in the Hollow of Bridgeport who loved to sing and have fun like the other America Italians there. When I turned twelve we moved to the North End of Bridgeport along with my brother and two sisters. Then along came two more brothers born in the North End. Being the second oldest of six children hindered my singing career as money was tight. I went on to join the navy after high school and spent four years doing my duty to Uncle Sam and becoming a man.

My path hasn't always been clear and times were difficult, however I love people, and I treat people the way I would like to be treated. I enjoy, travel, music, and I write poetry which is my craft and passion. Life is what we make of it and not what it makes of us. Though I live, work, and play in Bridgeport, Connecticut, I love to collaborate with professionals, consultants, and innovators everywhere.
