

Come Play "The Game"

"The Game" is an interactive, conceptual sculpture created by Bridgeport Gallery 1212's Gerald Moore. Using acrylic shapes you will build temporary sculptures that inspire you to "be creative and play." A growing body of research values "play" as an ideal context for learning and overall human development.

Black Rock Branch:

Tuesdays through August 12, 3:30-5PM

North Branch:

Wednesdays through July 16, 4- 5:30PM

Summer Program End Celebration

Come to the party and revel in all you've enjoyed this summer! For everyone who participated in the summer reading program or attended a special program at any Bridgeport Library.

Wednesday, 8/20/2014, 6:00 PM, Main Library-
Burroughs & Saden Michelle Obama
Community Garden

READ BOOKS TO WIN PRIZES!

Tweens and teens grade 7-12 can register and log books online beginning Monday, June 23, 2014.

Enter a weekly drawing for a $10 Amazon or CVS gift certificate.:

Fill out a short review about a book you've read this summer. You can also pick a grab bag prize for each review.

Answer the weekly trivia question at any library.

EVERYONE can read in the summer. Ask about our reading programs for kids, even adults!

To find out more about reading, or see a complete list of programs at the Bridgeport Public Library, call any location or visit our webpage.

BRIDGEPORT LIBRARY
www.bportlibrary.org

Main Library-Burroughs-Saden
925 Broad Street
203-576-7400 X444

Black Rock Branch
2705 Fairfield Ave
203-576-7025

Newfield Branch
1230 Stratford Ave
203-576-7828

North Branch
3455 Madison Ave
203-576-7821

Old Mill Green Branch
1677-81 East Main St
203-576-7634

Summer Reading and Programs For Tweens and Teens at the Bridgeport Public Library

BRIDGEPORT LIBRARY
www.bportlibrary.org

Special Summer Programs at all Bridgeport Public Library Locations

Batman Day

Batman turns 75 this year!!

Enter our contest by drawing someone in your life who is your "Superhero." Artists are encouraged to create their work in comic book style.

All submissions are due by the date below and will be displayed in the Teen Café at Burroughs & Saden throughout August. Very special guest judges include Paul Kupperberg, a former editor of DC Comics who has written 1,000 comic book stories including Superman, Green Lantern, Aquaman, Star Trek and many others.

Judging time TBA. Winner receives a pass to ComiConn at Webster Arena, August 15-17, 2014.

First 50 entries will receive a Batman poster button, bookmark, paper mask and temporary tattoo!

Batman movies will be shown all day.

Wednesday, July 23, Burroughs & Saden Teen Café

Stop by the Burroughs-Saden Teen Café all summer long for more fun activities.

Face Painting with Alicia Cobb

Inner beauty is best, but body art is...an art!

Wednesday, July 23, 1-2 PM, Black Rock Branch

Wednesday, July 23, 3-4 PM, North Branch

Thursday, July 24, 1-2 PM, Newfield Branch

Thursday, July 24, 3-4 PM, Old Mill Green Branch

Yoga for Teens

Core poses and basic philosophy for beginners ages 10 and up with Sun Wise Roots Yoga.

Mondays, 3:15-4:15 PM, Black Rock Branch

Skateboarding at Rampage Park

Receive tips and learn tricks. Permission slip required. Depart from Black Rock Branch approximately 3:30 PM every Thursday (bus fare is provided) and return approximately 5:30 PM.

Thursdays, 3:30-5:30 PM, Black Rock Branch

Video Gaming

Mondays-Fridays 1 PM—15 minutes prior to closing,
Saturdays, 10-4:45 PM, Burroughs-Saden Teen Café
Wednesdays, 3:15-5 PM, Black Rock Branch

Henna Art by Ezia "Z" Leach

Ezia "Z" Leach of "Z" Face & Body Art will create a design for each participant and give a brief history of Henna and its uses in today's world.

Class is limited to first 12 people that RSVP at each library.

(Individuals under 18 years of age must have a signed permission slip from parent or guardian before event to participate.)

Tuesday, July 29, 1-3 PM, Black Rock Branch

Tuesday, July 29, 4-6 PM, Old Mill Green Branch

Wednesday, July 30, 1-3 PM, Newfield Branch

Wednesday, July 30, 4-6 PM, North Branch

