

Food For Thought The Book Club With Bite Presents:

Family, Controversy, Histories

February 17th: We will read Jumpa Lahiri's novel of brothers swept up in revolution. How does the Communist Revolution of the 1960s affect students, ideas and especially the relationship between brothers and family? We will find out in The Lowland.

Join us for discussions of these books at 1 p.m. on the days listed.

March 16th:

Join us for a discussion of that book we should all have read in high school or college. Harriet Beecher Stowe was a Connecticut abolitionist and her Uncle Tom's Cabin was one of the most controversial novels of its time. Even today, it continues to spark debate.

Books will be available on lease from Baker and Taylor.
